10 New York Restaurants to Shortlist

Use this as a practical shortlist, not an absolute ranking. Check the latest menu, price level, dietary options and reservation policy directly before you travel.

1

The Dutch / SoHo

A strong first option for travellers comparing atmosphere, location and menu style.

2

The Fulton / The Seaport

Worth researching for a planned meal; current menus and booking windows may change.

3

Junoon / Flatiron District

A useful name for a food-focused itinerary near other central sights.

4

Katz's Delicatessen / Lower East Side

Consider this stop when you want a distinctive local dining experience.

5

Russ & Daughters Cafe / Lower East Side

Add it to the shortlist, then compare current prices and dietary choices.

Five more options, followed by practical planning notes.

6

Gramercy Tavern / Gramercy

A convenient option to investigate while exploring this neighbourhood.

7

Sylvia's / Harlem

Often discussed by visitors; reserve ahead when your travel dates are fixed.

8

Keens Steakhouse / Herald Square

A good candidate for balancing classic favourites with newer city experiences.

9

Xi'an Famous Foods / Multiple locations

Check opening days and transport before building it into an evening plan.

10

Jackson Diner / Jackson Heights

A final varied option for comparing style, budget and location across the city.

SMART PLANNING

Restaurant details change frequently. Check the venue's own website, current reviews, allergens, cancellation terms and dress expectations. Group reservations by neighbourhood to reduce travel time. This sequence is not a quality ranking.
